

@ 00:52:43 First time the bartender told them they cant go upstairs that they are private quarters. Cop said its still part of the bar bwc x60a89516 Duran

@00:52:56 repeated herself

@00:53:07 same officer and another searched back storage room then proceeded up stairs that has a locked door and they didnt knowck on that door but they did mine

@00:53:27 she asked the officers to come back down because its private

@00:53:45 they knock on the door, they ask me to open the door. I said no ones here, they can we just check if your the guy i said i dont have to do that.

@00:54:20 lead officer calls on radio to see who lives up there. And says bars giving us a hard time and that theres a door that everyone runs to and they are refusing to come out. Im not sure if this is our guy or not @0054:45 they ask me to come out again i tell them to call their supervisor because of an alert that is on my house telling them its private.the officer says i already delt with you before? I get mad and say why the fuck are you in my house then? He says were not inside your house, i tell them it is their is a no trespassing sign.he says its part of the bar insinuating that if it was he has a right to be there.

@0055:16 2 other officers Proctor and maquez walk up the stairs and chong says we always have a problem with this guy. Proctor says i know ive delt with this guythen proctor asks mike to get video footage . he asked the bartender and she said shes not sure then chong says call the liquor board and have this bar shut down. Then as proctor reaches the top of the stairs he has a smile on his face becuase he thought it funny to threaten someones livelyhood or he knew it was a false coherisive statement, then proctor asked the lead cop what are we doing make a decision, he say what do u mean and says no hes not doing that. Im guessing they are talking about breaking into my house then chong says remember when we had that standoff here? Proctor says ya, then says it was 5 fucking hours and the guy was right there and this guy was being an asshole again. Like how he always is and he wouldnt let it go

@00:56:52 i asked if it was officer aubrah and proctor goes its proctor thats who your looking for . i asked for names and badge numbers and they said were not giving you that. Were not even talking to you? You just knocked on my fucking door.

Then pfifer gets to the top of the stairs and askes if hes talking shit or what, the lead says ya asking for names and badge numbers fifer says oh 1st amendment autditer huh.

@00:56:40 i tell them get the fuck out of my house they say is this part of your no your house is in there so shut up. A few seconds later pgifer says come out here andd get your ticket i ignore him then says nothin to say now huh. I said ya get the fuck out of my house

@00:57:02 i ask for names and badge numbers Fifer says fifer you going to remenber that?

@00:57:14 i tell them get out of here again and again at 00:57:28 then fifer says come out here and talk to us then he asked are u the one who beat that dude up then ran thats shady bro how u going to beat someone up then run?

@00:57:25 i tell him again get out of here fool he says no were going to wait for you! Fifer says for u to come talk to us proctor says for u to give us video footage because we saw u run up here.

@00:57:52 i tell them get out of my house again fifer says this isnt your house we were invited byt the bartender to come up here take that up with her.

@0058:07 fifer asks if i had guns in ther i said fuck you then body cam x60a895116 say he does he does same officer calls to see who lives up there3 and he knows i always give them a hard time fifer says just come or we will have to get a warrent i told him please do if u do i'll let u in peacefully.same officer goes downstairs the bartender is there and he forcefully say get your manager on the phone now to show us video she goes now, he says right now

@1:01:02 the bartender and 2 patrons tell this cop that the suspect went out the front then the manager get here

One of the cops tell her that we need to see the cams she says shes not authorized. Then he says we need someone here now, she says if you come back tomorrow we can do that Then one of the officers says per the liquor code someone has to be here to access the cams right now if not we will call the liquor board and it will be a violation.

@1:08:45 one of the officers gets off the phone with who im guessing is a seargent then this cop asks what he said and he said hes on his way and we might have to cite the bar, then this officer say everytime were here i alwasy run upstairs and then its just a problem they dont want to give footage ext. We always cooperate if they arnt trying to come in my house ive given footage on a murder suspect once. Then he asks the suspect what he looks like, so when he wanted to see my face and for me to open the door he didnt even know what hes looking for

@01:10:41 the victim says i lost 25 cusins in vietnam freedome aint free. Hes obviously drunk and not a relyable source of info

@1:14:50 the seargent says remember about 6 months ago we had a standoff with this guy he came out on the padio and started yelling and threatening us.. I did not threaten them i said they were fucking stupid and that i told them he wasnt up here.then this officer says that his dv guy was hanging out with me upstairs?? No

The manager shows them video under duress of losing the liquor license

@1:32:41 fifer and proctor admit to eavesdropping inside my house saying they heard me in my phone call to the bar saying i would be fucking pissed if they were showing video. Proctor says it was kinda hard to hear because of the door then the sergeant say were going to have to call because i think there is a law that makes bars produce video on demand he couldnt remember the statute then proctor says yes they do the sears says were going to send ann email to the city attouorny and castro to see if we cant do something about the father especially if we have the son of the owner of the bar assaulting people. Huh? I never assaulted anyone and this is retaliation.

BWC # x60a5532u chongway

The vic says lucky has a goatee he dosent

@1:06:30 the chongway on the phone witht the sargent ask you about this whole thing about them not being able to access the cameras or provide any video footageand no one here that can access the cams then duran ask what he said and said hes coming here right now because he might cite them for not showing cams

BWC x60a82481 Fifer

@005919 he says if they have cam access were closing down the liquor then tells me you dont realize these places w liquor license have to have cams on everything. I told him stop lying and making shit up then he says you always that big and bad behind the door like prisoners at the prison the real homies talk shit like that. I told him if he wants to take his badge off and go for mutual combat i'll beat the fuck out of him then he says your doors not shut all the way i told him if he thinks he has the right to come in do it. But hes not welcom by me and he should go get a warrant and i would let him in and to stop trying to take my rights away do your job right then proctor says if we wanted to take your rights we would have came throught the door ahead. Then i tell him about 6 time just go get a warrant then fifer says stop trying to be google warrior proctor keeps spiting in my back hallway then proctor picks up one of my drill bits and later steals it i think

@1:5:35 they run my name and comes back armed and dangerous then he says hes on til 8am saying he will harras me longer

@1:07:52 fifer says is this family owned, does he know hes going to be the cause of getting the bar closed down

@ 1"09:21 they get a radiio call about info related to me about something that scared them then he has dispach send a picture to everyone on scene

@1:10:56 proctor tries to open my door.
